NOOR G. LIMA BOUDAKIAN
noor.limaboudakian.25@ucl.ac.uk | noorlimaboudakian.com
Budapest, Hungary

Education

Master of Science in Economy, State, and Society: Politics and the International Economy, University College London, 2027 (anticipated)
- Two-year, dual-degree program allowing for intensive study of social and economic issues in Central and Eastern Europe. Second-year placement in Budapest, at Corvinus University.
- Dissertation uses three case studies of independent Hungarian organizations focusing on women's reproductive health, placing them within the ongoing trends of pronatalist rhetoric.

Master of Arts in Economics, The New School for Social Research, 2023
- Political economy program, focus on feminist economics and postsocialist economies

Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Global Studies, The New School, 2022
- Summa cum laude, departmental honors in Economics, departmental honors in Global Studies, distinction mark on thesis, which looked women's socioeconomic autonomy in postwar Armenia

Academic Writing

• Lima Boudakian, Valijarvi and Kahn (submitted, Journal of Language and Sexuality) "Our Armenian culture finds these European ideas unacceptable": Language and belonging in Armenian queer communities

• Lima Boudakian, N. & Cheaito, H, (accepted, under review) Queer Kinship as Method in Social Reproduction Research, The Sociological Review

• Lima Boudakian, N. (under review, Feminist Media Studies). Tap Glass/Touch Grass: How Social Media Communities Impact the Lived Experience of Queer Youth in Armenia.

Teaching

• American University of Armenia (Adjunct Lecturer): Gender Perspectives (Summer 2024-Spring 2025; Summer 2026)

• The New School: Intro to Political Economy (Graduate Assistant, Fall 2023); Prison Plays and Theory (Undergraduate Assistant, Fall 2022)

Current Academic Projects

• As a research assistant, working with Prof Chiara Amini (UCL) and Chiara Mignani (KCL) on a project about cultural institutions, skills, and governance in Kosovo.

• Writing a paper about gender backlash in Armenia and the paradox of pronatalism with women's involvement in tech and other lucrative sectors

• Current master's dissertation focusing on Hungary uses three case studies of independent organizations focusing on women's reproductive health, placing them within the ongoing trends of pronatalist rhetoric. Using mixed qualitative and quantitative methods, I am analyzing this type of normative social reproduction as a form of alternative care within the context of reproduction-focused politics.

Relevant Work Experience

• Armenian-English Translator (September 2018-Present)

- Hamazkayin Armenian Educational and Cultural Society (ongoing, 2018-present): press releases, internal communications from Western Armenian
- Prof L. Khatchadourian (March 2024): translation and transcription of ethnographic interviews in Eastern Armenian

• Research Assistant, University College London (April-June 2026)

- With Professor Elodie Douarin, for her book project about the gendered aftermath of political participation in post-conflict scenarios
- Responsibilities included literature review, indexing, writing a research blog, and assistance on academic workshop

• Archival Research Assistant, Hrant Dink Foundation (June-August 2023)

Istanbul, Turkey

- Digitized and organized the paper archives of two Armenian schools in Istanbul, including student documents and school policies for a project tracing the history of the Armenian community.
- Reviewed and presented 24 grant applications, edited two annual reports for a survey project on Armenia/Turkey relations

• Data Research Assistant, Greater NY (April 2022-May 2023)

New York, NY

- Using SalesForce and Excel, maintained and evaluated data on cross-sectoral programs, partners, and events for over 300 organizations in the New York metropolitan area
- Supported management and analysis of partner data and research on the work of related nonprofits in New York, including preparing presentation slides of the materials to present to the Board of Trustees

Other Projects

• Female taxi drivers in Yerevan as symbols of the development of gender discourse in Armenia (paused)

• Parallels: Thinking From and After the Kitchen in Armenia, Oxana, and the Bronx (2022, complete)
    - A version of this project, in collaboration with Alexandra Delano, Anne McNevin, and La Morada mutual aid kitchen, is in the permanent collection of the Museum of the City of New York

• Exploring the Short-Term Impacts of Civics Education in Middle and High Schools (2021, complete)
    - In collaboration with Generation Citizen nonprofit. Presented as a poster at Dean's Honor Symposium

Academic Activities

Conference Presentations

2025: International Association for Feminist Economics Annual Conference (Amherst, USA)
2024: Eastern Economics Association (Boston, USA); REESNE Student Conference (Amherst, USA); International Association for Feminist Economics Annual Conference (Rome, Italy)

Workshops

2026: The Sociological Review "Methodologies and Epistemologies of Social Reproduction" (May); Nordic Summer University "The Question of the State in Queer and Marxist Theory" (accepted, unable to attend)

Service

Professional

- Reviewer for The Oxford Handbook of Post-Socialist Economies (ed. Aleksandr V. Gevorkyan)

University (American University of Armenia)

- Inaugural Student Feminist Club Advisor
- Successfully advocated for gender-neutral restrooms across campus

University (The New School)

- Interim President Search Committee Member (Summer 2023)
- Eugene Lang College Dean Search Committee Member (Spring 2022)
- Student Trustee (2022-2023)
- Committee Membership: for Advisory Committee on Investor Responsibility, University Budget Committee, Academic Affairs, Library Advisory Council

Community

- Women's Resource Center (Yerevan) volunteer, 2024-2025
- Gender and Empire: Feminist Perspectives (2024)
    - Organized lecture and discussion series in Rochester, NY with 40 participants

Scholarships and Awards

- IMESS Scholarship, University College London: full tuition and stipend (2025-2027)
- Armenian General Benevolent Union International Scholarship (2025, 2026)
- Max Adler Award for Leadership in Debate (2023)
- Eugene Lang Community Leadership Award (2023)
- National Debate Scholar, summa cum laude, Cross Examination Debate Association (2022)

Organizations

Member: International Association for Feminist Economics (Communications Committee), Association for Women in Slavic Studies (AWSS)